New Community Information Specialist at Northern

Palm Beach Gardens, FL – July 11, 2005 – Joanna Cunningham has joined the staff of the Northern Palm Beach County Improvement District as the new Community Information Specialist.

With over ten years of experience in Federal and County Government, she comes to Northern from Palm Beach County, where she served primarily at the Water Utilities Department for the past five years. She obtained a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from the University of Scranton, in Pennsylvania.

According to Ms. Cunningham, "Northern provided an opportunity for further growth and challenges within my profession. I look forward to informing the public about all of the impressive projects Northern will be undertaking as well as working with the residents and staff."

As Community Information Specialist, she will be responsible for communicating with the public the happenings at Northern. She is available to answer any questions or concerns. Ms. Cunningham is a resident of Wellington, FL and enjoys scrapbooking, bike riding and spending time with her son Christopher.

The Northern Palm Beach County Improvement District is an independent special district created by the Florida Legislature in 1959. Its role is to provide services related to water management, environmental enhancement and mitigation as well as infrastructure for properties in northern Palm Beach County.
