New Staff Join Northern Improvement District

Palm Beach Gardens, FL – October 6, 2005 – The Northern Palm Beach County Improvement District has added two new employees to their staff.

Susan Scheff has joined the staff of Northern Palm Beach County Improvement District. Scheff was formerly with the law firm of Lewis, Longman & Walker, P.A. and brings over 14 years of experience to Northern.

Sam Heady has also recently joined the staff of Northern as an Operations Manager. Heady came from South Florida Water Management District with several years of experience and is also a Marine Corps veteran.

In other news, another Northern employee, Joanna Cunningham, has been accepted into Mensa, the High IQ Society. Applicants must score within the top 2% of intelligence tests for admission. She currently is the Community Information Officer for Northern and has previously worked for the House of Representatives and Palm Beach County Government.

The Northern Palm Beach County Improvement District is an independent special district created by the Florida Legislature in 1959. Its role is to provide services related to water management, environmental enhancement and mitigation as well as infrastructure for properties in northern Palm Beach County.
